Science in News!

Congratulations to Sydney Allen. Sydney's speech "Healthy Soils Are Full Of Life" placed second in the State of Florida's Soil and Water Conservation Speech Contest. Sydney was awarded the 2nd place prize of $300.00. Great job, Sydney!

If anyone is interested in participating in the year's speech contest, see Ms. Weingart for details.

Business Academy in the News!

Critter Camp logo was created by Amanda Fields, a CMHS class of 2017 as a class project and her design was chosen. The Critter Camp sign is located just outside of Trenton toward Newberry.

CMHS Business Academy students Riley Dyer and Nathalie Solatorio, from CMHS attended Digital Media Institute a Sante Fe College InDesign and Illustrator. Boot Camp from June 12- 16 and June 29 – 23, respectively.

Pride Publishing has been created by our CMHS Business Academy students to apply real world skills in a working environment. Creating a micro-society within the walls of CMHS is exciting for our school, our students, and our community. We begin this journey with a 44" poster printer, a 3D printer, 8½ x 11 color printer, and a fun photo booth printing business. The accounting and graphic design students will work together as this new venture begins at CMHS. Students are encouraged to design and manufacture products, sell them in their own marketplace, and manage finances. Stay tuned for upcoming developments as students venture to create their own world inside CMHS and manage it. For more information please contact Ms. Christina Smith at Christina.smith@levyk12.org.

Pride Publishing is proud to recognize our first banner customer Wilda Long. She purchased the banner from Pride Publishing for her to hang in her classroom. Sydney Mainwaring and Ashont'e Hopkins are pictured below as they delivered the banner to her.

Pride Publishing announces their first 3D project printed for Mrs. Hallman. Pride Publishing designed and printed the dolphin pictured here made especially for Mrs. Hallman's daughter Emily, who is attending her first year at Jacksonville University. We wish Emily great success!
